PNN Submission and Policy Guidelines

The Editorial Staff has created the PNN Guidelines to help you get your submissions accepted and also to make our decision making process transparent to the community.

The PNN is the official newsletter of ASGPP and it is our goal to provide opportunities for connection, support, sharing of ideas, and communication within the society as well as between the ASGPP membership and other groups, organizations and communities in the United States and internationally. The Editorial Staff welcomes submissions from many sources and strives to have high standards that are clear and transparent. The PNN is published three times a year; Winter, Spring/Summer and Fall. It is emailed to our membership and posted on our website. Previous issues remain on the site indefinitely.

The PNN Editorial Staff (Executive Director, PNN Editor, Designer, ASGPP President and other contributing editors or designees) reserves the right to accept or reject any article submitted and to edit submitted articles in any way deemed appropriate and necessary.

Edited articles are not returned to authors for their review. However, the Editorial Staff may request additional information from authors when they deem it necessary.

The Editorial staff has the final say in what gets printed into the PNN.

The PNN does not accept stories or features that promote trainings or workshops done by any individual or group. No names of training groups or training workshops will be included.

The PNN Members in Action feature welcomes highlighting past events of our community. While individual names may be used, names of training groups or training workshops will be excluded.

The PNN would be delighted to highlight any psychodramatist who is an ASGPP Member that has received an award from any organization, university or not for profit organization. ASGPP Members who have presented workshops at conferences, as part of community outreach, or not-for-profit organizations, or published articles in professional journals are also accepted submissions.

Articles should have a title and list the full name(s) of all authors. Please send no more than a three line bio for each author including title and place of work. When possible, submit photos of author(s) or related to that event. Any links to source material are encouraged.

*The PNN does not feature stories or information previously disseminated by our sister organization, The American Board of Examiners (ABE).

As the PNN has grown in size and variety of submissions, please check the word count requirements before submission. Documents which greatly exceed word counts will be returned to you.
